GREAT AWAKENING AMONG CHINESE ATHLETES

Holding of Far Eastern Olympic Games in Shanghai Next October Causing First Stirring of Interest in Orient

Shanghai, July 20.—Evidences of great awakening of interest in athletics throughout China have been reaching Shanghai, which is to be Steam up in Komagata Maru and Persistent Dark Men Expected to Sail Away this Afternoon.

Vancouver, B. C., July 22.—Smoke poured from the funnels of the Japanese ship Komagata Maru at anchor in the harbor early today, and Guerdi Singh, the rich contractor of Lahore, promised that the ship will sail before night with 230 of her Sikh passengers, who came to Vancouver to demand entrance to Canada as British subjects, threatening, if refused, to return to India and agitate against British domination.

The Canadian cruiser Rainbow lies a cable's length from the Komagata and it is expected that she will convoy the Japanese steamer to sea. Provisions for the return voyage were placed on the Komagata today. Seven Vancouver Hindus have taken passage on the Komagata. They are bound for Hindustan, they say, to preach revolution telling the story of the indignities alleged to have been heaped upon the men who came on the Komagata.

Frank Chance had Birde Cree, said him for $2,500 and then bought him back for $5,000. It is stories of generosity like that which warrant Frank Farrell paying Chance $25,000 a year salary.

Hindus Give Up the Struggle to Come In

Rockville Center, N. Y., July 22.—One-half of Rockville Center's police force of six men are accused of burglary by warrants issued here today. Two of the three men—Patrolman Amos Veritan and Henry Wickes were arrested while on patrol; the third, Ruled Peterson, on his vacation, is believed to be in Holyoke, Mass. The Holyoke police have been requested by who to apprehend him.

The Pacific Coast beagle has had a lean, slender season financially. The passing of the "golden gate" as it were.

George Davis, one-time manager of the Giants, and for many years a star fielder of the Chicago White Sox, has been added to the starting force of the New York Americans. George is now out among the sticks, trying desperately to locate a few batters.

It is reported that Carroll Brown, former Mack pitcher, who one Saturday afternoon last year gave twelve consecutive bases on balls in eight innings and still beat them, was given to the New York Americans as a gift. Everybody waived on Brown and Mack wished him toChance to forestall a possibility of the Peds getting him.
